

Certified Technical Training Program

Our technical training program is designed to meet customer's specific needs with the use of interactive equipment-based learning.

REXA's training courses are formulated for operators and service technicians, and are taught by industry experienced instructors. These trainings provide the ability to gain a more in-depth understanding of our actuators and in turn will help to increase the equipment lifespan.

Course held at a REXA training facility or customers location

Basic XPAC Training

- One-day course
- Accommodates 10 trainees

Course Topics:

- REXA nomenclatures
- Actuator layout and features
- Display and keypad functions
- Operating parameters
- Cable types and functions
- Electrical and mechanical installations

Advance XPAC Training

- Two-day course
- Accommodates 6 trainees

Course Topics:

- REXA nomenclatures
- Actuator layout and features
- Display and keypad functions
- Operating parameters
- Cable types and functions
- Electrical and mechanical installations
- In-depth troubleshooting
- Hands on repair
- Optional equipment review
- Product gen. improvements

Customer Specific Training

- Two-day course
- Accommodates 6 trainees

Course Topics:

- Customer control scheme
- Upgrades and available options
- Maintenance and troubleshooting
- Option to complete training with customers spare assembly (input power required)

Ability to customize multiple classes to cover onsite shifts (8-hour durations)*

Contact us for more info!

281-944-4490

www.rexa.com/technical-training

REXA, Inc.
20338 Telge Road, Building E
Tomball, TX 77377

FL-1_09.26