

Certified Technical Training Program

Our technical training program is designed to meet customer's specific needs with the use of interactive equipment-based learning.

REXA's training courses are formulated for operators and service technicians, and are taught by industry experienced instructors. These trainings provide the ability to gain a more in-depth understanding of our actuators and in turn will help to increase the equipment lifespan.

Contact us for more info!

Gulf Coast Service Center

REXA, Inc.
20338 Telge Road.
Building E
Tomball, TX 77377
Tel: 281-944-4490
www.rexa.com/training

Basic Xpac Training

- One-day course
- Accommodates 10 trainees
- Course held at a REXA training facility or customer location
- Course topics:
 - REXA nomenclatures
 - Actuator layouts and features
 - Display and keypad functions
 - Operating parameters
 - Cable types and functions
 - Electrical and mechanical installations

Advanced Xpac Training

- Two-day course
- Accommodates 6 trainees
- Course held at a REXA training facility or customer location
- Course topics:
 - REXA nomenclatures
 - Actuator layouts and features
 - Display and keypad functions
 - Operating parameters
 - Cable types and functions
 - Electrical and mechanical installations
 - In-depth troubleshooting
 - Hands on repair
 - Optional equipment review
 - Product gen. improvements

Customer Specific Training

- Two-day course
- Accommodates 6 trainees
- Course held at a REXA training facility or customer location
- Ability to customize multiple classes to cover onsite shifts (8-hour durations)
- Course topics:
 - Customer control scheme
 - Upgrades and available options
 - Maintenance and troubleshooting
 - Option to complete training with customer spare assembly (input power required)